September 4, 2018 (Tuesday): Wild Strawberries

Traveling to accept an honorary degree, Professor Isak Borg is forced to face his past, come to terms with his faults, and make peace with the inevitability of his approaching death. Through flashbacks and fantasies, dreams and nightmares, "Wild Strawberries" dramatizes one man's remarkable voyage of self-discovery. 92 min. 1958.

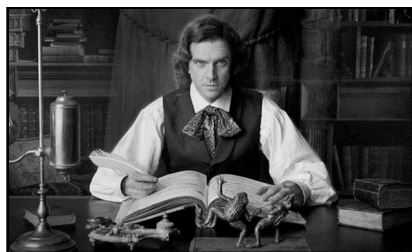

October 2, 2018 (Tuesday): The Flowers of St. Francis

This film is a series of simple and joyous vignettes that lovingly convey the universal teachings of humility, compassion, faith, and sacrifice of the People's Saint. A timeless and moving portrait of the search for spiritual enlightenment. 87 min. 1952.

October 30, 2018 (Tuesday): Little Women

Lovingly sentimental but firmly crafted adaptation of Louisa May Alcott's story of four New England girls cared for by their mother while their father is soldiering in the Civil War. Depicts the joys and woes of the loving March family household with warmth and sincerity. 115 min. 1933.

November 30, 2018 (Friday): The Man Who Invented Christmas

Tells the magical journey that led to the creation of Ebenezer Scrooge, Tiny Tim and other classic characters from A Christmas Carol. The film shows how Charles Dickens mixed real life inspirations with his vivid imagination to conjure up unforgettable characters and a timeless tale, forever changing the holiday season into the celebration we know today. 104 min. 2017.
